The Case is pending and will remain in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division after the termination of Steptoe's relationship with CGG,

CGG has the burden of keeping the Court informed respecting where notices, pleadings or other papers may be served: whether to Holcomb + Ward, another counsel, or both. CGG also has the obligation to prepare for trial or have counsel to prepare for trial. If CGG files or refuses to meet these burdens, CGG may suffer adverse consequences.

There are upcoming proceedings scheduled in the Case, as set forth below:

Upon our withdrawal, to the extent that you do not want to receive service through counsel Holcomb + Ward, [REDACTED] service of notices may be made upon CGG at 7035 Marching Duck Drive E504 Charlotte, NC 28210. [REDACTED] under the Local Rules, if CGG is a corporation, corporations may only be represented in court by an attorney. An attorney must sign all pleadings submitted to the court and a corporate officer may not represent the corporation in court unless that officer is also an attorney licensed to practice law in Georgia. Failure to comply with this rule could result in a default being entered against the corporate party.
